

Short Bio

In the heart of New York City, Ana embodies the spirit of jazz, blending soulful melodies with a theatrical flair. From Broadway to global stages, to the intimate enclaves of New York City's jazz clubs, she captivates audiences with dynamic vocals and evocative storytelling.

Medium Bio

Based in the heart of New York City, Ana channels her deep passion for jazz standards into a mesmerizing sound uniquely her own. With a dynamic vocal prowess, she effortlessly blends elements of jazz, soul, and blues to captivate audiences. From the grandeur of iconic stages like The Rainbow Room, B.B. Kings and The Hard Rock Hotel in Times Square, to the intimate corners of the city's jazz clubs including Minton's Playhouse, Room 623 and Joe's Pub, Ana's presence illuminates the vibrant tapestry of the New York City jazz scene. Yet Ana's artistry knows no bounds; her talent transcends borders, curating unforgettable jazz experiences at renowned international events including the 48th Annual Bermuda Music Festival, Holland America Cruise Lines, and the historic Chale Wote Festival in Ghana, West Africa, leaving an enduring imprint that enriches hearts and minds wherever her music travels.

Long Form Bio

Immersed in the pulsating rhythm of New York City, Ana channels the essence of jazz with a theatrical flair and an unwavering passion for the classics. Renowned for her vocal prowess, Ana seamlessly melds jazz, soul, and blues, crafting a sound that resonates with raw emotion and transcendent beauty. Ana's musical odyssey commenced amidst the glittering lights of Broadway, where she commanded the stage in Henry Krieger's musical revival, "Dreamgirls," at the historic Apollo Theatre. Her spellbinding portrayal of Josephine Baker in Barry Manilow's musical, "Harmony," garnered critical acclaim, earning accolades as a New York Times Critic's Pick and the prestigious 2022 Drama Desk Award for Outstanding Musical. Delving into the intimate enclaves of New York City's jazz clubs, such as Minton's Playhouse, Room 623, Joe's Pub, and Midnight Plus One, to the Ana's presence illuminates the vibrant tapestry of the New York City jazz scene to iconic stages of BB Kings and The Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in Atlantic City and Times Square, Ana's performances transport audiences to a realm where time stands still. Ana's artistry knows no bounds; her talent transcends borders, curating unforgettable jazz experiences from the opulent decks of Holland America Cruise Line to renowned international events such as the Chale Wote Festival in Ghana, West Africa. Recently, Ana unveiled her magnum opus, "Life is Jazz... a Musical Tribute to the Harlem Renaissance," to sold-out audiences at the 48th annual Bermuda Music Festival. Experience the soulful journey of jazz with Ana, where each note is a testament to the timeless allure of music and its transcendental spirit.